My Dear Sir

I am extremely anxious to see your "Vortrage" translated into English and extensively circulated in England & America. Will you kindly give me permission for a consideration to publish it in London, translated ~~as~~ by a competent hand

Have you made any additions and alterations to it since it was first published? if so would you be induced to place it at my disposal

I will recall my name to your recd. mention by informing you that I forwarded to you as your request for your Nachtrag sur Literatur

Some two or three important MSS which you have returned me and done me the honor to notice in your learned work by quoting the "codex Guedalla" where there was a variation in the usual readings

I remain
My Dear Sir
very truly Yrs
A Guedalla

Dr Levy

P.S. Enclose a letter I lately published in the Jewish Chronicle
